

CHICK CHAT

FROM THE ROCKIN' DE RANCH

We "played famous" with Loretta Lynn at Freeman Auditorium in San Antonio, TX.

HAPPY NEW YEAR Y'ALL!

Ahhh... There's nothing like the music bizness to keep us humble. We had a swell 1994, enjoying life's little luxuries at forty-two Motel 6s and playing towns where they still give out S&H green stamps at the grocery store. 1995 ought to be even better.

We started the new year off playing in the state capital for our new, improved, cleaner whiter brighter, Governor Bush! Lots of shakers and movers and plenty of regular folks like us too. We were all in the Austin Convention Center for hours of horse d'overs, dancing and chasing news crews for coverage.

REAL STORIES OF THE HIGHWAY

- Martie has purchased every Bride Magazine in Allsup's between Camelot, LA and Anaconda, MT.
- We played Orofino High School in Washington—Their mascot is the "Maniac" (and they're 2 blocks from the state mental institution!)

- We experienced an Elvis sighting at the Gator Lounge in Lake Charles, LA.
- Laura, A.K.A. Little Big Hair, fell through the stage in Muleshoe, TX—up to her ribs doing the vertical splits, and she kept on singing.
- We debuted in beautiful Butte Montana. But on route to Butte, we saw signs advertising a local "Post-Branding Testicle Festival and Horseshoe Throwing Contest!" Wow, we'd fit right in—'cept we couldn't find hide ner hair of it. I'm sure everyone had a ball.
- We found ourselves bottoms up in the Northwest when we had metal shavings in our rear end (OUCH!) and were forced to buy a rear differential from the Crow Indians in Wyoming. For some reason, they kept trying to beat on Tom.

- Tom has authored yet another book on... yes, DRUMMING! It's called Foundations; A Structured Approach to Beginning Drumset Study.
- Emily got pulled over for an illegal U-Turn over the holidays. When she tried to bribe the officer with a Dixie Chicks CD, he said, "That won't work on me young lady...I already have all three!"
- Our RV dropped its transmission on Highway 51 headin' west to Amarillo. We're now looking to hire a full time mechanic with a cosmetology degree and some experience in changing guitar strings.

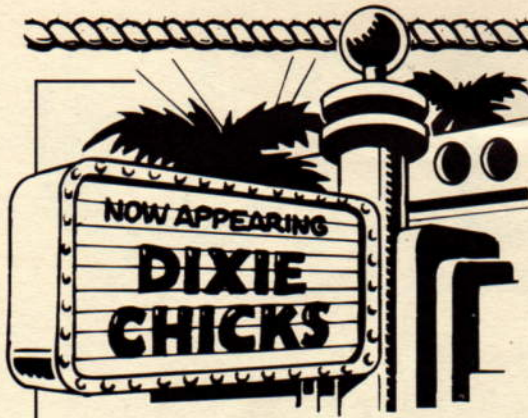

WHAT THE BIG TIME IS LIKE

At Freeman Auditorium in San Antonio, we had the opportunity to pretend we were famous for several hours! We ate cookies and kiwi with Loretta Lynn, mosied around in Merle Haggard's dressing room looking for his Dickel, borrowed Terry McBride's tweezers and had our very own glitter sign on our dressing room door (in the basement, next to the boiler room).

The Armadillo, Gary P. Nunn hisself came to our Broken Spoke show, sang a few tunes with us, and dang if he didn't just charm the folks with his voice and songs. Chris Wall, author of "I Like Women Just a Little on the Trashy Side," also made an appearance at the show. Laura is currently writing the rebuttal song called, "I Like my Men Just a Little on the Ugly Side."

The Armadillo hisself, Gary P Nunn, sang a few tunes with us at our Broken Spoke Show.
