

COUNTRY

W E E K L Y

The World's #1 Selling Country Music Magazine

March 21, 2000

Garth Retiring?
Readers Don't Buy It
See poll results inside!

Clint Black

Dolly Parton

Ty Herndon

Sherrie Austin

Collin Raye

DIXIE CHICKS

getting away with

mURder

Behind the mayhem of their explosive
PLUS — The rocky start to their runaway success story

$2.49 Canada

W... IN THE ROCKIES

...ked drinks and st... for cash, making more...

...over $100 in the... 12. Why...

...ills from... They did...

...the crowd... Then the...

...and... high...

...one... The...

...ing one... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

...ing to... The...

ALMA

ALMA
IN STO
NOW!

WHERE NOW!

MURDER

On the set of the Chicks' new video

Pushing the envelope is nothing new to the Dixie Chicks.

With sass, flash and attitude in spades, they're on a roll — 12 million albums sold, a steady string of No. 1s and a mantel full of awards.

Now they're setting the bar even higher with a new single that delivers a chipper take on a dark topic — murder.

By Larry Holden

YHHEM

