

FEBRUARY 3, 2003

People

The Dixie Chicks

FEUDS, FAME & FAMILY

Country's coolest girl group opens up about divorce, infertility, babies, music and marriage

GOLDEN GLOBES
GLITTER, GOWNS & GOSSIP!

PREGNANT & MISSING
NEW CLUES IN THE SEARCH FOR LACI

#BXBDBGDCAR-RT LOTC-063
#0168 1147 510* DE 18528024 MAY04
11
30
32

MICHAEL O'NEILL

CHRIS DELMAS/VISUAL PRESS AGENCY

94 COVER In Austin Dixie Chicks Emily Robison and Martie Maguire admire Emily's infant son Gus. "Family comes first," Maguire says.

58
UP FRONT

Friends' Jennifer Aniston sported diamond Bulgari earrings and bracelet when she won the Golden Globe for best actress in a comedy series.

109 Song

Fortune smiles on soloing Destiny's Child star Kelly Rowland with the release of her hit single "Dilemma" and new album Simply Deep

121 Book Bonus

Growing Pains? Tracey Gold tells how, after a 12-year struggle, she overcame anorexia

126 Jocks

Oakland's Super Bowl-bound Raiders get a boost from fantastical fan-atics

MAILBAG4
ONLINE6
STAR TRACKS8
SCOOP17
PICKS & PANS31
INSIDER57
PASSAGES93
STYLE WATCH113
PUZZLER118
CHATTER128

COVER Photograph by Michael O'Neill. Styling by Marjan Malakpour for Margaret Maldonado, Inc. Hair by Roque for See Management. Makeup by billy b for Streeters. Clothing: (Martie) Costume National. (Natalie) Loy and Ford at Barney's, jacket by Frankie B. (Emily) Loy and Ford at Barney's. INSETS by (from top): Fred Prouser; courtesy Peterson family

cover

"We're all more centered, stable and mature in our personal lives," says Natalie (at her Austin home with, from left, Martie, son Slade, Emily and baby Gus).

