

Dixie Chicks Cowgirl Band

Chick Chat

"Nightingales O' The Prairie"

WINTER 1992

Peck The Halls ...

These prairie canaries have been very harried. But we're all very merry with nary a carey. Our schedule is hairy, but that's temporary. We may never marry; we're so contrary and in the mornin' we look pretty scary. But after some cherries and a chocolate eclairy, we look to our drummer for brief commentary but now we're off to Tucumcarey! Well ahhhh declarey was all this necessary?

or two in our newsletter so here are their most recent quotes:

Drummin Tom says: "BomBom Buhduhduhduh bom bom!" Jeff's quote: "Sound travels so well in the Arctic that on a still day you can hear a conversation from a distance of 1.8 miles."

Matt, pondering the origins of Christmas: "What if there had been a room at the inn?" Then the song would be "Away in a roll-away..."

We were in Hog Heaven at the New Mexico State Fair in Albuquerque. At the Fair, Emily bought a big purple wooly sweater,

Critics' Comments

"... as you saddle up for that next long van trip, just remember that your work is not going unnoticed. You spread a lot of joy with your music and personalities. You are truly A TEXAS TREASURE!"

Our recent road trip to Oklahoma, Kansas and New Mexico was a doozey. We shared some biscuits and 40 weight gravy with the illegitimate grandsons of the Pioneers, and went on an incredible shopping spree at the National Cowboy Hall of Fame Gift Shop -the first in a series. We played happy birthday over the phone to Laura's little girl Asia who turned eleven. She doesn't want to be a

Letter from Ken Nicolas
September 5, 1992

"The Dixie Chicks are among those who can claim their fans nationwide. Their second album helped spread the word."

*Albuquerque Journal
September 13, 1992*

A ten-gallon hat holds barely 6 pints
(3.4 litres).

cowgirl! Can you imagine?

You haven't been scared 'til you are in a Winnebago with Martie at the wheel - she pruned some trees in Oklahoma City and learned that the hotel driveway overhang was 9' and not 9'4".

New scrabble word is Zibimok.

We got a couple of letters that said we needed to give our guys a sentence

(it was 98 degrees out) a concho bracelet, some moccasins, and tried to buy the baby zebra at the petting zoo. Laura bought a whole box of Christmas candelabras, another piece of turquoise, a pair of boots, a big tin of homemade Divinity, and stayed perched on the electric foot massagers. Martie bought a corn on the cob.

We saw the largest Hog in the world--1100 lbs--and sleeping. A ping pong ball would fit in it's nostril.

Dixie Chicks Concert Update

Date	Event/Location
Sat. Nov 7	We're havin' an old time barn dance at La Zona Rosa , Austin TX.
Sat. Nov 14	Lone Star Ball (American Cancer Society)/Benefit Circle "R" Ranch , Flower Mound, TX. 9 PM
Wed. Nov 18	Laura's Birthday! She wants a tea set, a pair of mittens, and pink toenail polish.
Sat. Nov 21	Red Cross Benefit The Car Barn , Washington, D.C.
Thur. Nov 26	Turkey Day Vacation gobble, gobble, oink. Tom likes sage in his dressing, Jeff likes cilantro, Matt likes possum giblets
Fri. Dec 11	A Holiday Show at The Caravan of Dreams Ft. Worth, TX. at 8 and 10:30 PM
Sat. Dec 19	Dallas Convention Center , 717 S. Ervay, 4 and 7 PM. Carnival rides, petting zoo, games, talking robots, singing chicks, and Toby the Monkey!
Sun. Dec 20-28	CHRISTMAS VACATION
Sat, Dec 26	Guitar Picker Matthew gets hitched! He's no longer "at large"!
Tue. Dec 29	National Cotton Council at Mort Meyerson Symphony Hall , Dallas.
Sat. Jan 2-9	Emily gets her wisdom teeth pulled, Laura goes helicopter skiing on the Canadian glaciers while Martie learns to bake a cherry pie.
Mon. Feb 1	Come February 1st, we'll be busy as bees in a tar bucket.

We're gonna bone up on some new music at the Rockin'
DC Ranch and play the El Paso Livestock Show and Rodeo where Laura showed lambs and steers in 1967. moo.

Thur. Feb 4

El Paso Livestock Show & Rodeo, El Paso County Colliseum.

Sun. Feb 14

"A man in love mistakes a pimple for a dimple." ♥

Wed. Feb 17

Berchmere Club, Alexandria Va.

Sat. Feb 20

Converse College, Spartanburg, S.C., Twichell Auditorium, 8 PM

Fri. Apr 23

Duncanville, TX. Old Panther Field- Reed Jr. High.
Zen Cafe opening.

Sun. Apr. 25

Eules Arbor Daze concert, 201 N. Ector, Eules, TX.

Our booking agent is Paul Lohr

